

CHARITY COMMISSION ENDORSEMENT

15th July 2014

The Charity Commission acknowledges that Community Foundations have a reputation for the effective management of charitable funds in order to maximise their impact at local level. The Charity Commission and Community Foundations have worked closely in recent years to ensure that trustees seeking to revitalise moribund (dormant) or ineffective trust funds (which are looking for an effective way of carrying on their good work in future years) can release their funds to a Community Foundation as part of their appraisal of options.

The Charity Commission welcomes and supports this initiative and encourages all charities to ask themselves whether they should work with Community Foundations as an alternative to continuing.
